George Slosson left at 10 o'clock this morning for loston, where he plays Schaefer to-night in the opening game of the three-cornered billiard tourney. The student expects to get Jake's signature to an agreement to play in a week's tourney in this city at the enchor barred game—a game which has never been seen in New York. Slosson was feeling far from confident when he left. "I con't take much interest in these tournalisms away from home," he said. "My mind is always on my business here, and I am not able to give the attention to the game it requires. With Schaefer and Iyes it is different. They play billiards cil the time, while I have but little chance for doing so. I do not think my fifthe has yone back any, and am confident that I could play just as well as Schnefer or Ives if, like them, I had no other carea. "For instance, yesterday, I settinged a
